Historic Heritage Schedules in RMA Regional and District Plans

Regional and district plans include lists of historic heritage for protection by rules. The NZHPT promotes the use of a simple historic heritage schedule structure that includes historic places (buildings and sites), historic areas, places and areas of significance to Maori, and other types of heritage (i.e. geological sites).

Suggested Structure of Historic Heritage Schedule in Regional and District Plans

Historic heritage	Sub-Category	Content	Example
Historic Places (buildings)	Group A	Places registered as Category I historic places and other nationally significant historic places.	ANZAC and Kiwi Halls, Featherston (registered Category I historic place)
	Group B	Places registered as Category II historic places and other non-registered places of heritage value and significance.	Natusch House, Masterton (registered Category II historic place)
Historic Places (Sites)	Group A	Sites (including archaeological sites) registered Category I historic places and other nationally significant historic sites	Rabbit Fence – ‘Omahu Farm’, Stronvar Road (registered Category I historic place)
	Group B	Sites (including archaeological sites) registered Category II historic places and other non-registered sites of heritage value and significance	Zukeika Grave, Palliser Bay (not registered)
Historic Areas		Registered historic areas and other non-registered historic areas of heritage value and significance	Rimutaka Incline Rail Trail (registered historic area)
Places and Areas of Significance to Maori, including wahi tapu		Registered wahi tapu and wahi tapu areas and other non-registered but significant places and areas of significance to Maori. May include recorded archaeological sites of significance to Maori	Te Maipi, Masterton (registered wahi tapu area)
Heritage Landscapes (see Discussion Paper No. 3)
Notes: The surroundings associated with each type of historic heritage should be identified.
The term ‘building’ includes any temporary movable or immovable structure that is fixed to the land
